RELOCATION SERVICES

“Anyone we recommend must be an extension of who we are and the type of service we want to provide to our clients.”

At Terra Firma Global Partners we have taken a different approach to supporting our clients when it comes to relocation services. Unlike many large firms that purchase, or become affiliated with large organizations for the right to work with specific client groups we believe in a more home grown approach to service. In our opinion real estate is a local business that can best serve its clients by understanding each individual market and every professional recommended to perform a task or job in the process. Below are a couple of key points to consider as you look for relocation services:

We recommend seasoned real estate professionals who know their markets and have the knowledge and experience to meet the client’s expectation. (Most large organizations end up giving their relocation clients to less experienced agents due to the fee structure involved in the process so many times the client ends up with an individual who may not be the best person for the job.)

We have long standing relationships with other real estate brokerages throughout the United States, whether buying or selling we will do our best to match you with the right professional to suit your needs. We even help you interview real estate agents outside our market area. (Most large organizations will send your information through a computer system and managing brokers most often hand out referrals to newer agents.)

We have recommendations for all of your relocation needs depending on your specific situation so please email us at info@terrafirmaglobalpartners.com so we can best serve you.
